

IEEE Hackathon Success for Amrita University Student Team

By AmritaQS - January 12, 2021

Share on Facebook

Tweet on Twitter

Report Post

Team Name: Brain Bucket

PROJECT SMART HELMET

Student Members

- GOKUL RAJ J
CB.EN.U4CSE19114
- V.S.S.K CHAITANYA
CB.EN.U4CSE19156
- BAVESH RAM S
CB.EN.U4ECE19109
- M.DARSHAN
CB.EN.U4CSE19126

Faculty Mentor
Dr. Prashant R. Nair, Associate Professor - CSE

Organized by

- IEEE
Advancing Technology for Humanity
- YESIST12
- Guidance TamilNadu

Amrita Vishwa Vidyapeetham
Amrita School of Engineering, Coimbatore
Department of Computer Science & Engineering
Department of Electronics & Communication Engineering

4th BEST PRIVATE UNIVERSITY in India on Innovation
ARIIA ATAL RANKING OF INSTITUTIONS ON INNOVATION ACHIEVEMENTS

Brain Bucket, a student team from Amrita School of Engineering, Amrita Vishwa Vidyapeetham (Amrita University), Coimbatore campus, India has emerged as the runner-up in Yaadhum Oorae Global Conclave Hackathon 2020 organized by IEEE YESIST12 & Guidance Tamil Nadu, investment promotion agency of Tamil Nadu state government in India.

The team, which is mentored by Dr. Prashant R. Nair, Associate Professor-CSE, Amrita University showcased their smart helmet for this hackathon.

Team Brain Bucket student members are Darshan M., Gokul Raj J, V.S.S.K Chaitanya, who are students of 2019-2023 batch B.Tech Computer Science & Engineering (CSE) and Bavesh Ram S., 2019-2023 batch B.Tech Electronics & Communication Engineering (ECE) of Amrita University.